Re Item V

Reasoned statement with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

- 1 Reference is made to the following documents:
- D1: US-A-3 541 964 (ARNEY J. HARBERT) 24 November 1970 (1970-11-24)
- D2: US-A-4 195 798 (CARROLL, D ET AL) 1 April 1980 (1980-04-01)
- D3: FR-A-2 103 253 (LIENART JEAN PIERRE) 7 April 1972 (1972-04-07)
- D4: US-A-3 128 463 (HOPPER ROBERT J) 7 April 1964 (1964-04-07)
- D5: US-A-5 024 548 (TIMMINGTON ET AL) 18 June 1991 (1991-06-18)
- D6: US-A-3 490 799 (THOMAS F. SHREEVE) 20 January 1970 (1970-01-20)
- The present application does not meet the criteria of Article 33(1) PCT, because the subject-matter of claim 1 is not new in the sense of Article 33(2) PCT.
- 2.1 The document D1 discloses (the references in parentheses applying to this document):
- 2.1.1 A tow cable termination (the fact that the cable is a tow cable is not considered as a limiting feature) suitable for sustaining the tensile load when an object is towed at high speeds at the end of a cable, the termination comprising a closed eye bolt (28) attached to the cable (23) and a U-bolt (32) looped through the eye bolt (28) and attached to the object (34).
- Dependent claims 2, 3, 5, 8 and 9 do not contain any features which, in combination with the features of any claim to which they refer (except claims 5, 8 and 9 when dependent on claim 4), meet the requirements of the PCT in respect of novelty and/or inventive step either because the additional features of these claims are also disclosed for similar cable terminations (see documents D1-D3 and the corresponding passages cited in the search report) or because they relate to simple constructional details that the skilled person would normally contemplate without the exercise of any inventive activity.
- The combination of the features of dependent claim 4, 6 and 7 is neither known from, nor rendered obvious by, the available prior art.

Re Item VII

Certain defects in the international application

- 5 Contrary to the requirements of Rule 5.1(a)(ii) PCT, the relevant background art disclosed in the document D1 is not mentioned in the description, nor is this document identified therein.
- Independent claim 1 is not in the two-part form in accordance with Rule 6.3(b) PCT, which in the present case would be appropriate, with those features known in combination from the prior art (document D1) being placed in the preamble (Rule 6.3(b)(I) PCT) and with the remaining features being included in the characterising part (Rule 6.3(b)(ii) PCT).
- 7 The features of the claims are not provided with reference signs placed in parentheses (Rule 6.2(b) PCT).

Re Item VIII

Certain observations on the international application

- The application does not meet the requirements of Article 6 PCT, because claims 1-2, 4-8 are not clear. The reasons therefor are the following:
- 8.1 In these claims, it is not clear what is part of the subject-matter of the application as some features of the cable termination are being defined relatively to another object, in this case "the attached object".
